

Why Wear Red for Pentecost?

The Sunday that is seven weeks (50 days) after Easter Day is the Feast of Pentecost. Pentecost the day on which we remember the story given to us in the second chapter of the Book of Acts.

The story goes:

- 40 days after the resurrection (which we celebrate at Easter) Jesus ascends into heaven (which we celebrate on Ascension Day)
- But before he ascends, Jesus promises that he will not leave us “comfortless”, but will send the Holy Spirit to strengthen and to guide us, to guide the church.
- Ten days later, on the Day of Pentecost, Holy Spirit descended on the people gathered. (note: Pentecost is an ancient Jewish festival of the harvest, the name of which translates from the Hebrew as The Festival of Weeks. This festival is referred to in Exodus chapters 23 ad 34, and in Deuteronomy chapter 16)
- In the Book of Acts, the story is told:

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

So... on The Day of Pentecost in the church year, fifty days of Easter and ten days after the Ascension, the clergy wear RED vestments to signify the work of the Spirit. It is also a custom in many churches for the people in the congregation to wear RED on the Day of Pentecost as well. We wear RED to remind us of the fire of the Spirit.

In addition, a congregation with many dressed in RED is colorful.

And perhaps most of all, it is fun.

Yarn Twisters

I am happy to let you know that we have filled one box with goodies for the SCI mariners! I packed 35 scarves and 39 hats, plus 1 vest – and it is only May! Also, we received a donation of yarn from a friend of mine who moved and had a clear out, so we do have some yarn to carry us through for a while. Many thanks to the Needle Workers of Heath Village and Yarn Twisters of St. James' for supporting this mission and to Jerry Sheard who offered to deliver the box in early June.

We are always looking for new knitters and crocheters – the patterns are easy to follow and can be found on the SCI website at www.seamenschurch.org/christmas-at-sea. This also gives an idea of what colors can and cannot be used, no tassels or fringes. If you would like to knit/crochet for SCI and need more information, please contact me at frlbailey1@comcast.net or call me at 908-684-3566.

Thanks and enjoy the warmer weather!

JOIN IN THE FUN - THE GOLF OUTING IS LESS THAN A MONTH AWAY!!

We're closing in fast on the 9th Annual St. James' Golf Outing. It will be held on Monday, June 26 at Farmstead Golf Club in Lafayette, NJ.

There is still time to register to play - teams and individuals are more than welcome. Entries for players are $130 / person.

Almost just as good as playing is to join in the fun at the dinner following the golf. The cost for dinner only is $35 / person. There is a chance to join in as well with the raffle and 50/50 - part of the lively wrap up to the day on the links. In past years, we've had 15-20 dinner guests joining the fun at 5:30 PM. Farmstead puts on a great buffet spread, and there is plenty of food for all.

Sponsorships for the outing are available. These cost $50 / family, and can be made to the memory of loved ones. It's a nice way to help directly support activities such as the Backpack program, North Porch, and the Quinlan Bereavement Center. These causes are all a part of what St. James' means to the community and proceeds from the golf outing helps support these.

Entry forms can be found in the Narthex and in Snyder Hall, or you can go to the St. James' website to download a copy.

Deadline for registrations (golf or dinner) need to be made no later than June 15. If you have any questions, please speak to any of the Golf Outing committee members, Dan Miller, Phyllis & Paul Bartkus, Meg & Bill Critchley, or Barbara Olesen.
