

Are you hungry for a community in which you can be supported, affirmed, and challenged on your life's journey? A place where you are welcomed as you are and encouraged to know more what God would have you be?

This is Cathy Deats, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church in Hackettstown. St. James' is a place where we strive to follow Jesus the Christ as our Lord. Basically, we feed people – body, mind and spirit.

Please join us for worship Sunday mornings at 8 and 10 o'clock.
Find us at the corner of Washington and Moore Streets in Hackettstown.
Come, and be fed.
